Greetings

November 2020

What a glorious few weeks we have had in Southern Ontario this November! Temperatures around 20C, lots of brilliant sunshine, light winds, no rain, no frost overnight...just the best golfing weather. Golf is one of the few activities that is so ideally suited for this pandemic, consequently golf courses have been busy, busy, busy. Needless to say, I've been taking full advantage of this opportunity. Starting to feel like work!

COVID-19 case counts are rising in Ontario, in all of Canada actually, so now is not the time to let down your guard. Now is not the time to start treating this lightly. Although, just heard that one of the large pharmaceutical companies, Pfizer I think, is showing hugely encouraging results in their clinical trials. Perhaps there will be good news soon. Besides that other great news! "We Just Did—46."

Did you happen to see the news report about a train that was saved by a whale tail? Somewhere in the Netherlands, a train overshot it's station and one car went over the edge and would have fallen some distance to the ground but for a plastic whale tail sculpture that was oh-so-in-the-right-spot to catch the car and keep it propped up while authorities figured out a way to deal with it. I've seen the story mentioned in a number of places but just search for "train whale netherlands" and you'll find it. The picture is quite amazing.

In the "Another Opportunity Missed" file...sales of jigsaw puzzles are going "bonkers"—NPR as families, stuck at home for the past few months are desperately looking for any and all activities to while away the time and keep the rug rats distracted. The puzzles are in really short supply as the demand has exploded, and the supply chain is straining under the load. So, order early if you hope to have any for the holidays!

One more, then I'll stop. Have you heard of Nandi Bushell? I hadn't. Read about her in the New York Times. Look her up on YouTube. You'll be amazed.

JD's Picks

Discovered a new Irish writer recently, although that should be Northern Irish as GARY DONNELLY is from Belfast and that is where his DI Owen Sheen series is set. Blood will be Born (#1) ($21.95) is the series debut and Killing in Your Name (#2) ($21.95), the follow up, is also available. Adrian McKinty, the author of the excellent Sean Duffy series, had this to say about the book: "A twisty, violent, cop thriller set in post-conflict Belfast... Brilliant. Gary Donnelly is an exciting new voice in Northern Irish noir."

A very brief synopsis: DI Owen Sheen vowed never to return to Belfast, but he needs answers about his brother's death. He is on loan from London's Met to the Police Service of Northern Ireland, although before he can dig into the past, he must babysit DC Aoife McCusker on her first murder investigation.

As the case slides into chaos, can Sheen put his personal agenda aside? And will McCusker keep her job long enough to ensure that this first case is not her last?

It might be decades since the Troubles were over, but the atrocities committed by both sides have not been forgotten. They are still very much fresh in the minds of the people who lived through those dark and turbulent times. Peace still seems very fragile and it seems that the country is still sitting on tenterhooks. This is dark and troubling read, but once I got a few chapters in, I was hooked.

And while in Belfast...one of the best reads about the Troubles was Twelve aka Ghosts of Belfast ($9.99) by STUART NEVILLE. Released recently was his The Traveller and Other Stories ($35.95) a collection of twelve stories that "traverse and blend the genres of noir, horror, and speculative fiction, and which bring the history and lore of Neville's native Northern Ireland to glittering life." The collection concluded with the novella The Traveller, a companion piece to Twelve. If you have loved Twelve as much as I did, then you need to read this "conclusion" to the story.

A masterpiece of the crime genre is T. JEFFERSON PARKER's California Girl ($19.99.) This novel was published 2004 and was the winner of the Best Novel of the Year Edgar. I did not read it at the time, but as it has become available again, I finally got around to reading it. It's excellent. It's smart, clever and totally entertaining. Kinda lengthy, but I didn't want it to end.

Here's a brief synopsis: The Orange County, California, that the Becker brothers knew as boys is no more—unrecognizably altered since the afternoon in 1954 when Nick, Clay, David, and Andy rumbled with the lowlife Vonns, while five-year-old Janelle Vonn watched from the sidelines. The new decade has ushered in the era of Johnson, hippies, John Birchers, and LSD. Clay becomes a casualty of a far-off jungle war. Nick becomes a cop, Andy a reporter, David a minister. And a terrible crime touches them all in ways they could never have anticipated when the mutilated corpse of teenage beauty queen Janelle Vonn is discovered in an abandoned warehouse.

And finally for me, Bad Axe County (#1) ($23) by JOHN GALLIGAN.

Here's a not-so-short blurb: Fifteen years ago, Heidi White's parents were shot to death on their Bad Axe County farm. The police declared it a murder-suicide and closed the case. But that night, Heidi found the one clue she knew could lead to the truth—if only the investigators would listen.

Now Heidi White is Heidi Kick, wife of local baseball legend Harley Kick and mother of three small children. She's also the interim sheriff in Bad Axe. Half the county wants Heidi elected but the other half will do anything to keep her out of law enforcement. And as a deadly ice storm makes it way to Bad Axe, tensions rise and long-buried secrets climb to the surface.

As freezing rain washes out roads and rivers flood their banks, Heidi finds herself on the trail of a missing teenaged girl. Clues lead her down twisted paths to backwoods stag parties, derelict dairy farms, and the local salvage yard—where the body of a different teenage girl has been carefully hidden for a decade.

As the storm rages on, Heidi realizes that someone is planting clues for her to find, leading her to some unpleasant truths that point to the local baseball team and a legendary game her husband pitched years ago. With a murder to solve, a missing girl to save, and a monster to bring to justice, Heidi is on the cusp of shaking her community to its core—and finding out what really happened the night her parents died.

I really liked this book. I really liked Heidi. The misogyny of this little southwest corner of Wisconsin seems like America in all its glory—though that's probably totally unfair, I suspect it's small-town anywhere—and how Heidi, with the support of a special few, deals with it, is so affirming. There is a sequel, Dead man Dancing (#2) ($36) as well.

Marian's Picks

The second wave seems to upon us. What interesting times we are living through! My escape, my refuge, is the cottage with the magnificent Pixie. As soon as my work week is done, I just head to the cottage and escape. Seems less stressful that way. And, to help me get through my down time, I have my new favourite book, What Wines When ($19.95) by CHRIS HARROP. I know that we have annotated this before, but it does come in handy when navigating the aisles of my little cottage country LCBO. They carry a fair number of the wines listed in the WWW and having the guide at hand makes selecting easy. I've also discovered how easy it is to order some of the wines from the LCBO website and have them delivered to my local LCBO!

I did watch a bit more television the week of the US election, mainly CNN, so haven't read as much as I should have. The wine came in handy, to calm my frayed nerves. Engrossed as I was with the political shenanigans on the telly, Pixie is very good at telling time, so no meals or walks were missed. I never forget when it's cocktail time (5pm), but I am not making as many cocktails as I normally do because I am conducting research on reasonably priced wines!

I read ROSEMARY MCCRACKEN's latest offering in her Pat Tierney series, Uncharted Waters (#4) ($19.99) and really enjoyed it. Pat is heading into uncharted waters when she decides to set up her own financial planning practice and wants to buy an existing business. Trouble starts just after the sale documents are signed and the man she bought the business from is found dead. Murdered, of course! Not a good way to start out on your own! Part of the enjoyment of reading the book for me is its setting. Most of the action takes place in and around Toronto, and I can follow the characters and say, yes! I know where that is. Her previous book, Raven Lake (#3) ($19) was similar, as it is set mostly in cottage country, and again I felt like I knew where I was going. Pat has a complicated life, full of events and responsibilities that are similar to all of us, but throw murder into the mix and she has her hands full. Especially when the son of the dead man from whom she has just bought the practice is claiming that the business sale is not legitimate and he starts defaming her character! Twists and turns, interesting info. on how financial planners work (especially if you are thinking of using one), diverse characters, good plot... the book zipped along at a fast trot and before I knew it, I had finished it.

Murder in the Margins ($10.99) by MARGARET LOUDON is the first in a new series which has everything a lover of a cosy mystery will enjoy. It's set in a quaint English village, everyone is constantly drinking tea, the main character is the writer in residence at the local bookshop and lives in a tiny cottage just down the road from the shop, the murder victim is the chairwoman of the yearly village fete! I could go on, but you get the picture! American Gothic writer Penelope Parish grabs the chance to move to England hoping it will help her with the writer's block she's facing after the success of her first novel. Solving a murder, with the help of a bunch of crazy village characters, seems to be just the cure she needs.

I've just started reading VICKI DELANY's latest "Year-Round Christmas Mystery" Dying in a Winter Wonderland (#5) ($10.99) and it's starting off a charm. Merry Wilkinson is about to open her shop, Mrs. Claus's Treasures, on Christmas Eve, the busiest day of the year in the retail business. Especially if you own a shop dedicated to Christmas in a town that is full of Christmas cheer, and I suspect a murder is coming to town! I'll be snuggling up with the book this evening, the candles lit, the fire roaring and one of Chris's recommendations at hand.

And now for something completely different. VINCE FLYNN wrote thirteen books featuring Mitch Rapp, a CIA covert assassin who is part of a group of clandestine operatives who work outside the normal chain of command, men who do not exist! He can take on a dozen bad guys all at once and come out on top, and I am ashamed to say that I only started reading his books about a month ago. I picked a title at random and read it, and then immediately read another one. I don't usually do that, read another book of a writer immediately after, but I couldn't resist. It's hard to say where you should start in the series; the first was published in 1999's Transfer of Power ($23) but 2010's American Assassin ($12.99 paperback, $23 trade paperback) was a prequel to the series and it explains how Mitch Rapp came to be recruited into this covert CIA group. I started with 2005's Consent to Kill (#8) ($14.99 paperback, $23 trade paperback), which is number 8 in the series, but in hindsight, I think I should have started with an earlier title. If you want a fast moving, no holds barred, assassin, save the United States, save the world type series, then this is it. Mr. Flynn died in 2013 and the series is being continued by Kyle Mills.

Hardbacks

ANDERSON, LIN macleod INNOCENT DEAD (#15) ($33.99) Mary McIntyre's disappearance tore the local community apart, inflicting wounds that still prove raw for those who knew her. So when the present-day discovery of a child's remains are found in a peat bog south of Glasgow, it seems the decades-old mystery may finally be solved. Called in to excavate the body, forensic scientist Rhona MacLeod uses the advances made in forensic science since Mary's vanishing to determine what really happened all those years ago—and who was responsible. One key person had been Karen Marshall who was devastated by her best friend's abduction. Questioned by the police at the time had led to a dead end and the case soon went cold. Now the news of the discovered body brings the nightmares back. But added to that, memories long-buried by Karen are returning, memories that begin to reveal her role in her friend's disappearance and perhaps even the identity of the killer.

ANDREWS, DONNA langslow GIFT OF THE MAGPIE (#28) ($34.99) Meg's running Caerphilly's Helping Hands for the Holidays project, in which neighbors help each other with things they can't do and can't afford to have done. Her hopes for a relatively peaceful (if busy) Christmas vanish when someone murders Harvey the Hoarder, whose house the Helping Hands were decluttering. Was there any truth to the rumor that he had something valuable hidden beneath all his junk? Was one of his friends, neighbors, or relatives greedy enough to murder him for the rumored treasure? And what about the magpie that has been bringing her family bits of tinsel and costume jewelry—does the bird's latest gift hold a clue to solving the crime?

BANVILLE, JOHN strafford SNOW (#1) ($34.99) The incomparable Booker Prize winner's next great crime novel—the story of a family whose secrets resurface when a parish priest is found murdered in their ancestral home. Detective Inspector St. John Strafford has been summoned to County Wexford to investigate a murder. A parish priest has been found dead in Ballyglass House, the family seat of the aristocratic, secretive Osborne family. The year is 1957 and the Catholic Church rules Ireland with an iron fist. Strafford—flinty, visibly Protestant and determined to identify the murderer—faces obstruction at every turn, from the heavily accumulating snow to the culture of silence in the tight-knit community he begins to investigate. As he delves further, he learns the Osbornes are not at all what they seem. And when his own deputy goes missing, Strafford must work to unravel the ever-expanding mystery before the community's secrets, like the snowfall itself, threaten to obliterate everything.

BLACK, LAURA GAIL FOR WHOM THE BOOK TOLLS (#1) ($35.99) Trouble follows Jenna Quinn wherever she goes. Fleeing some unsavory doings in her hometown of Charlotte, Jenna accepts her uncle's gracious invitation to stay with him in small-town Hokes Folly, NC. In exchange, she'll help him out in his antiquarian bookstore. But soon after she arrives, Jenna finds her uncle's body crumpled at the base of the staircase between his apartment and the bookstore. Before the tragedy even sinks in, Jenna learns that she's inherited almost everything her uncle owned: the store and apartment, as well as his not-so-meager savings and the payout from a life insurance policy...which adds up to more than a million dollars. This is all news to Jenna—bad news, once the police get wind of her windfall. An ill wind, indeed, as a second murder cements Jenna's status as the prime suspect in both deaths. Jenna can hit the road again, taking her chances that she can elude trouble along the way. Or she can stick it out in Hokes Folly, take over the bookstore, and try to sleuth out her uncle's killer.

BROOK, ALLISON CHECKED OUT FOR MURDER (#4) ($35.99) Daphne Marriott strolls into Clover Ridge and informs librarian Carrie Singleton that she's a psychic. But had she foreseen what fate awaited her, Daphne would have steered clear of the quaint Connecticut town. Evelyn, the library ghost, tells Carrie that there's more to Daphne than she lets on. The mysterious woman grew up in Clover Ridge with her no-good dad, who apparently met his end at the hands of Daphne's brother, Billy. Still, Daphne proves a welcome distraction when Carrie's overbearing mother hits town. Mom's much younger husband, Tom, is in a movie that's lensing locally, and she's there to keep an eye on him: Tom's costar, sultry Ilana Reingold, is also his ex-fiancée, and there's no denying the chemistry is still there. Soon after mingling with the moviemakers at a meet-and-greet, Daphne is found dead. Carrie and Evelyn investigate, assisted by bushy-tailed library cat Smoky Joe. The first in the series is Death Overdue ($21.99).

BROOK, ALLISON haunted READ AND GONE (#2) ($35.99) A devoted dad is as precious as diamonds, but Carrie Singleton wouldn't know since her dad Jim's been on the lam most of her life. In an unusual family reunion, she finds Jim breaking into her cottage in the middle of the night. The fun really starts when he begs her to help him recover his half of a twenty-million-dollar gem heist he pulled off with the local jeweler, Benton Parr. When she refuses, Jim takes off again. Carrie finds her father again behind bars for the recent murder of Benton Parr. Who made the connection? Unbeknownst to her, Carrie's boyfriend Dylan, an insurance investigator, has been searching for the gems. Determined to find the jewels herself, she starts examining every facet of Parr's life. Retreating to the quiet confines of the library where she works, Carrie watches as Smokey Joe, the resident cat, paws at a hole in the wall. Is he after the library's ghost Evelyn, or something shinier?

BROOK, ALLISON haunted BURIED IN THE STACKS (#3) ($35.99) In winter, the Haunted Library is a refuge for homeless townspeople. When a group purchases a vacant house to establish a daytime haven for the homeless, Carrie offers the library as a meeting place for the Haven House committee, but quickly learns that it may be used for illegal activities. As the new Sunshine Delegate, Carrie heads to the hospital to visit her cantankerous colleague, Dorothy, who had fallen outside the local supermarket. She tells Carrie that her husband tried to kill her—and that he murdered her Aunt Evelyn, the library's resident ghost, six years earlier. And then Dorothy is murdered—run off the road as soon as she returns to work. Evelyn implores Carrie to find her niece's killer, but that's no easy task.

CASEY, JANE kerrigan CUTTING PLACE (#9) ($32.99 hardcover, $23.99 trade paperback) The gripping new thriller from the Top Ten Sunday Times bestselling author, shortlisted for the Irish Crime Book Awards 2020. Everyone's heard the rumours about elite gentlemen's clubs, where the champagne flows freely, the parties are outrageous...and what goes on behind closed doors is darker than you could possibly imagine. Paige Hargreaves was a young journalist working on a story about a club for the most privileged men in London. She was on the brink of exposing a shocking scandal. Then she disappeared. DS Maeve Kerrigan must immerse herself in the club's world of wealth, luxury and ruthless behaviour to find out what happened. But Maeve is keeping secrets of her own. Will she uncover the truth? Or will time run out for Maeve first?

CHILD, LEE /ANDREW CHILD reacher SENTINEL (#25) ($38.99) As always, Reacher has no particular place to go, and all the time in the world to get there. One morning he ends up in a town near Pleasantville, Tennessee. But there's nothing pleasant about the place. In broad daylight Reacher spots a hapless soul walking into an ambush. "It was four against one" . . . so Reacher intervenes, with his own trademark brand of conflict resolution. The man he saves is Rusty Rutherford, an unassuming IT manager, recently fired after a cyberattack locked up the town's data, records, information . . . and secrets. Rutherford wants to stay put, look innocent, and clear his name. Reacher is intrigued. There's more to the story. The bad guys who jumped Rutherford are part of something serious and deadly, involving a conspiracy, a cover-up, and murder—all centered on a mousy little guy in a coffee-stained shirt who has no idea what he's up against. Rule one: if you don't know the trouble you're in, keep Reacher by your side.

CONNOLLY, JOHN parker DIRTY SOUTH (#18) ($37) It is 1997, and someone is slaughtering young women in Burdon County, Arkansas. But no one in the Dirty South wants to admit it. In an Arkansas jail cell sits a former NYPD detective, stricken by grief. He is mourning the death of his wife and child, and searching in vain for their killer. Obsessed with avenging his lost family, his life is about to take a shocking turn. Witness the dawning of a conscience. Witness the birth of a hunter. Witness the becoming of Charlie Parker.

DOYLE/LOVEGROVE, JAMES SHERLOCK HOLMES AND THE BEAST OF THE STAPLETONS ($25.99) 1894. The monstrous Hound of the Baskervilles has been dead for five years, along with its no less monstrous owner, the naturalist Jack Stapleton. Sir Henry Baskerville is living contentedly at Baskerville Hall with his new wife Audrey and their three-year-old son Harry. Until, that is, Audrey's lifeless body is found on the moors, drained of blood. It would appear some fiendish creature is once more at large on Dartmoor and has, like its predecessor, targeted the unfortunate Baskerville family. Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson are summoned to Sir Henry's aid, and our heroes must face a marauding beast that is the very stuff of nightmares. It seems that Stapleton may not have perished in the Great Grimpen Mire after all, as Holmes believed, and is hell-bent on revenge.

DOYLE/RYAN, RICHARD THROUGH A GLASS STARKLY ($62.50) After surviving an attempt on his life in Paris, Sherlock Holmes returns to London, where the Great Detective is almost immediately enlisted by his brother to secure the safety of the delegates at a top-secret peace conference. With Europe a veritable powder keg in the years before World War I, Holmes understands any misstep on his part could prove fatal and possibly plunge the continent into war. However, after pledging to do his utmost for "King and Country," Holmes suddenly finds himself overwhelmed by an onslaught of cases. An old friend requests his assistance in recovering a priceless manuscript which has gone missing from the British Museum. Accused of accepting bribes from a smuggling ring, Inspector Lestrade, who has been suspended from Scotland Yard, turns to Holmes for help. Add in a beautiful newlywed who claims her husband is trying to murder her, and it is easy to see why Watson compares the tasks confronting his friend to the Labours of Hercules.

DOYLE/SMITH, DANIEL SHERLOCK UNLOCKED: LITTLE-KNOWN FACTS ABOUT THE WORLD'S GREATEST DETECTIVE ($22.95) Consulting detective Sherlock Holmes has been fascinating generations of readers, watchers and listeners for over 130 years, since he first appeared in print in 1887. Now an internationally renowned cultural icon, his name appears on books, films, television dramas, radio plays, stage adaptations and the rest right across the world and he is listed in the Guinness Book of World Records as "the most portrayed movie character" in history. With all this material readily available, one might think there's not much to find out about Sherlock, but here, Daniel Smith looks behind what we think we know about the well-known sleuth and reveals little-known facts of which every Sherlock aficionado should be aware. From the eccentric and odd characters to the bizarre plot twists, and from Conan Doyle to Moriarty, this book will appeal to Holmes' fans old and new.

DUNCAN, ELIZABETH penny ON DEADLY TIDES (#11) ($35.99) With a picturesque black and white lighthouse, pebble beaches and stunning views of sea and mountains, the island of Anglesey off the coast of North Wales is the perfect place for an idyllic mid-summer painting holiday. And watercolour artist, businesswoman, and amateur sleuth Penny Brannigan is enjoying the retreat enormously—until she discovers the body of a New Zealand journalist on a secluded beach just as the tide is going out, threatening to take the body with it. The postmortem reveals the victim died from injuries "consistent with a fall from a great height," and the death is ruled accidental. But Penny thinks there's more to the story. Curious how the victim came to such an untimely end at this most inhospitable spot, she uncovers a link to a mysterious disappearance several years earlier.

ELDRIDGE, JIM museum MURDER AT THE NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM (#5) ($32.95) 1895. When the newly dubbed 'Museum Detectives' are asked to investigate deliberate damage to a dinosaur skeleton at the Natural History Museum, there is evidence that the fossil-hunting mania of the notorious Bone Wars in America may have reached their shores. But for Daniel Wilson, famed for his involvement in the Jack the Ripper case, and renowned archaeologist Abigail Fenton, events soon take a sinister turn. A museum attendant is found dead in an anteroom by none other than the infamous theatre manager Bram Stoker, who it seems may have had a personal connection with the deceased. Facing pressure both from an overseas business and local celebrity, Wilson and Fenton must rely on their talents and instincts to solve their most puzzling case yet.

FRENCH, TANA SEARCHER ($36) Cal Hooper thought a fixer-upper in a bucolic Irish village would be the perfect escape. After twenty-five years in the Chicago police force and a bruising divorce, he just wants to build a new life in a pretty spot with a good pub where nothing much happens. But when a local kid whose brother has gone missing arm-twists him into investigating, Cal uncovers layers of darkness beneath his picturesque retreat, and starts to realize that even small towns shelter dangerous secrets.

GATES, EVA lighthouse DEATH LONG OVERDUE (#7) ($35.99) It's summertime in the Outer Banks of North Carolina and Bertie James's college class is having their 40th anniversary reunion. The opening night reception is held at the Lighthouse Library and Lucy and her colleagues have assembled an exhibit of library artifacts showing how libraries have changed over the years. After the reception, some of the women take a walk down the boardwalk to the pier, using flashlights to illuminate the dark path, but what's scarier than the dark is finding the former director of the Lighthouse Library floating lifeless in the water. Helena Sanchez, the former director, wasn't much loved and spent the party being rude to almost everyone there. As a result, Lucy finds herself in deep water as she rocks the boat, questioning several suspects. But she'll have to batten down the hatches and fast before she's left high and dry...and right in the killer's crosshairs.

GOLDENBAUM, SALLY society CRIME OF A DIFFERENT STRIPE (#4) ($35) While no-nonsense mother-to-be Cass Halloran tries downplaying her pregnancy and her frequent doctor's visits as an "older" mother-to-be, a softer side of the lobsterwoman emerges as she joins the Seaside Knitters in knitting an abundance of delicate hats and booties. But in contrast to the happy news, terrifying events unfold at the town's art series that puts a real chill in their New England fall. Izzy Perry's husband Sam had reservations about inviting his one-time mentor Harrison Grant to speak at the opening reception, although he never imagined the famed and charismatic photographer would rudely embarrass his hosts that evening. But when a dead body turns up along the wooded shoreline the next day, startling secrets come into focus that could undo the tight-knit community of local artists. With a mysterious murder pitting neighbors against each other, Izzy, Birdie, Nell, and a vulnerable Cass find themselves entangled in a dangerous hunt for answers.

GRISHAM, JOHN brigance TIME FOR MERCY (#3) ($39) Jake Brigance is back! Jake Brigance finds himself embroiled in a deeply divisive trial when the court appoints him attorney for Drew Gamble, a timid sixteen-year-old boy accused of murdering a local deputy. Visions of Christmas shopping, parade floats, and romantic rendezvous are already dancing in their heads. But Christmas cheer soon turns to Christmas fear when, at one event after another, people keep getting hurt. The Christmas bells are ringing hauntingly in Columbus this year, and Sarah Booth and Tinkie—with a little help from hunky Sheriff Coleman Peters, of course—are determined to catch the wrong-doers and ensure they receive nothing but coal in their stockings.

To do so, he must abandon the safe haven of New Orleans, where people know he's a free man, to return to the self-proclaimed "Slaveholders' Republic". MOSLEY, WALTER AWKWARD BLACK MAN ($38.95) This is a collection of seventeen of author's most accomplished short stories. Deeply vulnerable, he allows himself to be taken advantage of in return for a little human comfort in a raw display of true need. Pet Fly, previously published in the New Yorker, follows a man working as a mailroom clerk for a big company—a solitary job for which he is overqualified—and the unforeseen repercussions he endures when he attempts to forge a connection beyond the one he has with the fly buzzing around his apartment. And Almost Alyce chronicles failed loves, family loss, alcoholism, and a Zen approach to the art of begging that proves surprisingly effective.

With him is his fierce and beautiful wife, Shannon, an architect he met on his travels, a woman who soon breaks down the lonely Roy's walls.
